

IZE Emerging Leaders Mentorship Program Application 2025

The International Zoo Educators (IZE) Association invites mid-career conservation educators to apply for a year-long coaching and mentorship experience designed to support leadership growth. Participants will be paired with a senior mentor and work collaboratively on a professional development project aligned with their goals. Over the course of the year, they will also participate in three online master classes delivered by a team of experienced conservation education professionals, designed to provide tools, insights, and support for developing and presenting their final project. On completion of the mentorship, each participant will present their project outcomes at the IZE Conference. Contingent upon successful completion of the program, IZE will fund the participant's conference registration and hotel accommodation.

Applicants must:

- Be a member of IZE for a minimum of one year
- Have at least five years of experience in conservation education or a similar area
- Be in or preparing for a supervisory or leadership role
- Have a background in teaching, interpretation, or public engagement
- Submit a current 2-page CV/resumé and a letter of support from their institution confirming organizational support, why they're an appropriate candidate for the program, and agreement to cover remaining conference costs (transportation, visa, meals, other expenses, etc.)
